

Dr. Punit Rathod

Lead Technical Standards, Qualcomm India Pvt. Ltd.
& 5G Indian Forum (5GIF)

Punit Rathod (Member, IEEE) received the Ph.D. degree from the Indian Institute of Technology Bombay, India. He has more than 15 years of wireless research and development experience. He has a diverse experience of working as an academic researcher and a co-founder of a startup with deployed equipment in public-safety agencies in India and multinational companies. He has contributed to national and international standardization efforts at 3GPP, IEEE, and ITUR. His recent work has been focused on spectrum and standardization as a Lead-Technical Standards with Qualcomm Standards and Industry Organization.